

I would like to express my opinion that I am not in favor of allowing use of cellular phones on Airplanes unless it is in case of emergency (such as 9/11) I would however support/continue to support use of other silent airborne technology such as computers, games, GPS systems, etc.